

An absolutely terrible petition, allowing a monopoly on DSL at the expense of consumers, and at the expense of smaller ISP's who broaden and enrich the market for consumers, keeping it competitive. This will simply ensure that large corporations remove smaller competitors at everyone's expense aside from Bell South (and ultimately a few other huge corporations). Monopolies should not be condoned.